

EDUCATION STUDIES MINOR

The Education Studies minor is intended to address the diverse information needs of the UCLA undergraduate community to (1) allow students to learn more about the multitude of contemporary professional research issues confronting the field of education, (2) help understand the complex interactions between the legal, social, political, and economic forces which influence and shape educational policies in America, (3) provide an introductory course sequence for students who wish eventually to pursue careers in education either as teachers or researchers, and (4) provide an analysis of current educational practices.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS:

For admittance to the minor, students must:

- Have at least Sophomore standing with a minimum C+ (2.30) cumulative G.P.A.
- Complete at least TWO Education courses prior to applying for the Minor; one of which must be a core course (Transfer students need to have completed one Education course and have one in progress at the time of application submission).
- Submit a completed application for admission AND a Degree Progress Report (DPR) or an unofficial transcript to the Office of Student Services, Room 1009 Moore Hall, by the deadline date. No late applications will be accepted.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS:

Students must satisfy both the core and elective areas listed on the back. Substitutions for elective credit are considered by petition only. Students must follow the program of study provided at the time of admission to the ESM Program. The Education Studies Minor requires the completion of seven courses:

- Four CORE courses (Ed 194 & Ed 182/183 are required and count as ONE of the four core courses)
- Three ELECTIVE courses (review elective course restriction on plan of study)

PLEASE NOTE: You may use no more than one of the following courses to count as one of your three elective requirements: EDUC 80, 92A, 92B, 92C, 92D, 92E and 92F. The remaining two electives should be selected from the list of additional elective courses offered in the ESM Program. This is to ensure a balanced elective program of study.
